“ Just after my divorce in 1971 I was totally devastated so rather than sit around & feel bad about my failed marriage, I decided to throw my energy into leading the wonderful group of children of 3 yrs of age to teenagers. One of the special ones became Johnny Mack, as I so enjoyed his guitar picking & had a real desire to learn to play the guitar. He tried his best over & over but didn't have much success cause my fingers weren't callused enough & I didn't hold the strings down tight enough. As an afterthought & credit to my ability, it was a right handed guitar & I'm left handed. Who knows if that was the reason but it doesn't matter now. I just stuck to the piano. During the time we spent together I fell in love with the whole family including his Mom, Mamie. We played a game called 'how many people can we pile in this '61 Chevy'. This was before the seat belt law so we were ok! I always drove fast enough but was very careful realizing the precious cargo I was carrying! With the guidance of Mr. Alva Lee Mitchell, Wanda Mitchell & Mrs. Mary Helen George we built a wonderful MYF youth group at Dellrose Methodist Church. I took pride in the behavior & dedication of these young people & was in awe at the prayers they offered to God with the tender urging of Mr. Alvie, as we called him. They helped me so much during this transitional time in my life & I will always be thankful to them. We had special & fun times! Thru the years I didn't even see Johnny Mack much but I'm happy for his raising a fine family. You all are like family to me & I want you to know I am heartbroken that he was taken so soon. I love you all!
