“ I just learned today of Addie Ruth's passing. So sorry to hear this, but she lived life like she wanted to, enjoyed living the lake life and enjoying her retirement years. Condolences to all. Her memory will live on in each of you.

“ My Granny Ruth defined unconditional love. She loved her family and friends and always put ALL others first. She raised a host of us on Tim's Ford Lake where she will FOREVER be royalty. If you couldn't water ski, you was about to learn. The grandchildren pulled her up on slalom (1 ski) for her 72nd birthday!!...;)...She was a magician beautician and cut the entire families hair and countless friends as well. All friends of us grandchildren called her "Granny Ruth" and I promise you it was always "fun:30" at Granny Ruth's. One of her favorite piano tunes summed it up!....Shake, Rattle, and Roll!! Granny Ruth we love you!! Thank you for showing so many of us how to live and love the right way.

“ *What a wonderful, kind, fun loving southern lady and dear friend. Hasty Hollow will not be the same without your laughter ringing across the cove. Your friendship will be cherished always. My condolences to the family. Ruth was truly one of a kind and loved by everyone that knew her. I hope you and John are water skiing the day away!! ❤️
My heart is broken that I cannot be there today.
