

Aline Vaughn Brooks

March 18, 1934 - September 10, 2022

Aline Vaughn Brooks, 88, of Lynchburg, passed away on Saturday, September 10, 2022, at Viviant Healthcare of Shelbyville. She was born on March 18, 1934, to the late Arthur Edward Vaughn and Mattie Florence (Thompson) Vaughn, in Giles County, Tennessee. In 1949, she married Thomas Eugene Brooks, and they had 4 children. They were happily married for over 64 years until the time of her beloved husband's death in 2014. Aline was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was steadfastly devoted to her Lord, her husband, and her family.

Aline was a member of Hickory Hill Baptist Church in Lynchburg for almost six decades where she taught Children's Sunday School for many, many years. She was a woman of strong moral character who lived a life of service to others and will be remembered by all who knew her for her kind and generous spirit.

Aline was fiercely independent and talented in many ways. Although she had very little formal education, she and her cousin, Grace O'Dean Carson, took classes in upholstery and opened their own business, Carson & Brooks Upholstery, in the early 70's. They ran a thriving business for many years at a time when there were very few women owned and operated businesses. Aline was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas, and her son, Billy Wayne Brooks, as well as her parents and several siblings. She is survived by her children, John Thomas Brooks (Janice); Mary Florence Thompson (James); and Judy Carolyn Coss (Ray). She is also survived by 7 grandchildren, 2 step-grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and 3 step great-grandchildren, as well as a brother, Wayne Vaughn, and a sister, Annie Lee Painter. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, other extended family, and countless friends.
