“ I remember Ms Barbara when she would come to the nursing home to visit her son Stanley. She loved that boy so much he was her heart and soul. RIP Ms Barbara you have earned your angel wings and I know Stanley is so happy to have his mama with him now. Prayers for all the family and friends for their loss may God keep and hold you in his caring and loving arms and give you the strength for the coming days, months and years.

I was saddened to learn about the passing of Ms. Barbara. I have many fond memories of her. I enjoyed going with my family to visit her and her family at their house way up the hill in Lynchburg. I also enjoyed her cooking, particularly her spaghetti and what my family called "Ms. Barbara pie." I liked that pie so much, I asked for it instead of a cake on a birthday or two of mine. To her family, please accept my condolences on your loss. She was a kind, gracious, admirable, lovely lady.
