“ RIP Bo Always a good man and lived for God in the short amount of time that I knew him. I stumbled upon him at the lowest point in my life in which he had introduced God back into my life. If it wasn't for Bo I have no idea where I would be right now so today I thank God that I got to know him. I'm praying for all his loved ones. He will be missed dearly.

“ I'm sorry that I didn't make the most of our time when we met. If I had only knew then that it would be my only chance I would have done things a lot differently. I remember being so nervous and not knowing what to say. And now when I see your pictures I can see my own eyes looking back at me and I feel an immense void. I think I'm a lot more like you than I ever knew. There's so many questions that I have that I will never get to ask you. You have 5 grandchildren that will never get to meet you and fills me with so much sadness. Keep an eye on Billy.
P.S.- I love being outside too.
