Broke my heart to hear that Christopher had passed away. I remember when he was born and also we use to go visit him and his grandmother Ms. Black all the time. My mom was friends with his grandmother and use to work with her also before she had to quit and take care of Christopher. She loved him so much! I can only imagine the conversations they are having in Heaven!!! My family had pictures with Christopher from a small child and then even as he got a little older. I'm 50 years old now but I remember he loved music so very much, me and my mom and sister would sing to him he loved it. He would hug my mom and his grandmother would say now be easy Christopher with Ms. Pearl cause he was a strong little boy. He would like to touch my moms long black hair as well. We loved him and his precious Grandmother I know she's rejoicing that he's with her in Heaven!!! My prayers to your family during your time of loss. He was truly a miracle !!! I'll never forget Christopher!!
