“ Derest Momma, i could never thank you enough for a lifetime of wonderful memories. Vacations in Tennessee, Bandshell nights with Whoppers, letting me stay with my unbehaved doggie, bowls full of your yummy mashed potatoes for my walk home and so much more. We must have exhausted you yet you never said no. You spoiled us, that's for sure. You are such an inspiration, so loving, so giving, so warm and fuzzy. You and Pa treated me as if I were your own daughter. I will never forget the love you've shown, that you remembered a gift I gave you when I was a probably a teen and that you kept it all those years. I miss you so much already. I always looked up to you and loved you like you were my own mother. I will always cherish the precious memories you've given me, the kindness you gave to me unconditionally and all that made you such a very special person in my life. I was so saddened by the health problems you endured in later years, it broke my heart to see so someone so wonderful having to go through so much. I know you're finally getting the rest and peace you deserve. No more troubles, no more pain, just the wonders of Heaven with your loved ones. I will treasure being a part of your life forever. My love to you always, forever, eternally...Your little one xoxoxox <3 For Pa <3 For Ronnie <3
