“ So sorry to hear that Mr. Herman passed. Just today (1/18) saw the notice. I remember so many times Mr. Herman playing with my dad (J.C. Warren, banjo player) probably from the time I was a teenager. He was a wonderful musician and always had a smile. Sometime after my dad passed and my mom (Miss Vera) and sister (Julia Fay) were living on Louse Creek, my mom sold my dad's banjo(s) to Mr. Herman. When I found out that mom had sold them, I called Mr. Herman crying and begging him to let me buy them back. He said yes. When I went to his home, he gave them back to me but would not let me pay him more than what he had paid my mom for them. His compassion that day meant so much to me and I will never forget him. Dad, Mom, and Fay are all gone now but I know they all loved Mr. Herman too. We pray Holy Spirit blessings on you and all your family and know that we will see and know him some blessed day, praise God! Love, Lawrence & Tauna Warren Moorehead
