“ Mr David served on the Moore County Public Library Board for 6 years. He was in the group of trustees that was first certified. Mr. David always talked about his family. He loved his wife and often spoke of Ann. I will miss him. He always came by my office to give me a hug whenever he visited the library. He had a huge appetite for reading. My God comfort the family during this difficult time.

“ We loved Mr. Hazlett! We loved running in to him in Lynchburg. Whether at the library or at Woodards, he'd always have a smile on his face! We'd always chat and catch up on how everyone was doing. And we'd pick at each other! He was a good man and he loved his family! He will be missed!
