“ Me and Jackie go all the way back to our teen years Im 63 now. We went on numerous road trips mostly within 200 miles of home. Shot alot of guns along the journey through life and maybe some road signs. LOL. We went to gun shops and gunshows all our life. I sold alot of guns for Jackie as well. He was a dear friend forever. And one of the smartest people I know on multiple things including religion. He didnt have a college degree but I told my wife Jackie knows alot on many subjects. I always told him he would live to old like his dad and broyhers but I was wrong and I cant believe hes gone too soon. We all that grew up with him miss him an awful lot. Rest in Piece Jackie, my prayers go out to his family.

“ I can't remember a time where I didn't know Bubba. My grandfather and his father were very close friends as he and I were. JW was a man of all seasons. We all go in different directions in life but always seem to return to family at some point. Bubba was and is family. Always in my heart . RIP my friend and brother.

“ I can't remember when Bubba wasn't part of my life. He enjoyed life! He loved his family fiercely and served them with everything he had. He was a loyal friend of many and as life took each of us in different directions you could always count on him to be there as needed. We have been on a many loafers as he called it. Now Bubba is gone on a forever loafer but will remain forever in the hearts of those that loved him.
