“ Dear Kathy, I am so sorry to hear about the death of Kevin. I was completely shocked because I didn't even know he was ill. He was a great person to be around. Due to my health problems, I was unable to attend the funeral. You may not have heard, but I have been declared legally blind. My son, Robin, is typing this for me. My prayers are with you and all of your family! Love, Albert Stone

“ Dad,
I am going to miss you. Thank You for showing me the finer parts of life. Outdoors, canoeing, camp fires. And even more importantly how to raise kids, treat my wife do things right in the world. I am having a pretty hard time with you passing. But I know you are not hurting now or in the future. Leah misses you, she told Granny D to go home and pray for you the other day.. I am hopeful I will see you one day in heaven. Love You, Jason “*Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal”. - From a headstone in Ireland. So much love and prayers to Kevin's Family and Friends.

Rest in Peace, Kevin may the arms of the angels envelope you with love and healing! Kathy Thank you so much for opening up your heart and home to me as if I was never a stranger so many years ago. I am truly blessed to have known Kevin.
God Bless You and Yours

“To Kevin's Family:

Back in the early days of Motlow, I had the privilege of teaching Kevin in my business classes. He and his friends (Ron Cato and Carl Tucker) were such fun-loving, great guys. I always enjoyed talking to him over the years when we might see each other, and I was so sad to hear about his passing. His smile was contagious, and we will all miss him. I hope these words can bring some comfort, and my thoughts and prayers are with you all.

*Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day, Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed, and very dear.*
