“ Brenda: I didn't know your mother but I'm sure she was a fine lady. I know she raised a very good daughter. As I've learned in the past months, sometimes it's minute to minute in your grief. The things that have helped me are family, friends and most of all prayer. I'll remember you and your family in my prayers. Donna Rust

“ Dearest Brenda, Jennifer, Wendy and family, So very sorry in the passing of your dear mother and grandmother.
All of us will have this appointment to keep as well. Please during your sorrows continue to think of all the pleasant memories of her long, 92 years here with all of you. This is God's plan and I know that with Ms Lorene being a Christian there is that joy of once again seeing her and being together in heaven. This should be the comforting to get you through this day. We also know that she is now back with your dad and grandfather and are in new, painfree, non medicine bodies. Even though I will not be able to visit with you today at the funeral home, you all are in my thoughts and prayers today and in the sad days ahead. God bless you and keep you all together. With loving sympathy, Michael Robison

“ Hello Jimmy and Brenda. Your mom was a very special lady and will never forget her and the good times I had at your home. I wanted you to know that I have made my cornbread like hers by putting cornmeal in the skillet before adding the mixture. I ve been told by my son that I make the best cornbread in the world. I also recall all the baseballs and softballs she made at home. Our family will always cherish the bond that was formed while our Dad s served together in World War II. Peace be with you and your families. I know you will miss her. Much love from us. Myra Farris Kernea and Bobby Kernea

Thinking of all the family at this time of your great loss. I've known Lorene & R. D. most of my life, and they were a fine, Christian couple Lorene was on of the sweetest women I've ever known. She will be greatly missed by so many family and friends and at Hoover's Grove Church of Christ.
