“ LouAnn is my cousin. Her father's mother Jewel Scott is my Great Aunt. I remember her as a child coming to my grandparents Sue and Elbert Sullivan for Christmas dinner with the family. She was gone for years to New Mexico. I was arrested at Lincoln County Jail. I didn't stay long as I was bonded out. My cousin gave me tshirts, socks, underwear, shampoo, conditioner, paper, pen, envelopes everything I needed. We talked. I hugged her and gave her all her stuff back before I left. I wrote her and she wrote me and we communicated over messenger and the telephone.. LouAnn always asked about my grandma and my kids. I didn't know she was so sick or I would've visited her. My cousin had a beautiful smile, a heart of gold, naturally wavy, curly hair just like myself and Amanda. There are years of crazy stories, and I guess I can say the same. I love my family and cherish my memories ❤️💜❤️
