“ To the mother that was so loved by everyone that knew her. I cannot ever begin to explain what you meant to this family and will forever mean to us. You were the bond that kept us together and the friend to everyone! When I picked up your ashes today, it became so real. I love you my Momma and will cherish my moments with you until the day that I die. Thank you for being the real treasure that you were. Rest in heaven with dad, until we meet again!
