“ Mary Williams was and always will be one of the finest humans, community members, and Christians we will ever have, the family has been my neighbors since 1969, even after War and further U.S. Naval service, they welcomed myself and my life partner back home to the community, brought us to church they we're directing, many memories I have, all through life of Mr. Joe, Mary, and their family members, Fair Winds and Following Seas always, Dear Lady.
