“ Pat was a wonderful, caring individual. She arranged meetings with teachers to help our son while he was in high school; she was instrumental in helping him complete his education. We shall always be grateful for her help and for her kind consideration and understanding. She'll be missed.

“ My sweet dear Pat, thank you for all the special times we have had together. You taught me so much about special education and the special way you handled each student. You showed them a world that they could do anything they wanted to do in life. Students ask about you and when we had talked. You will be missed by more than you ever thought. I will miss our visits and our talks. Love you "PAT"
