“ Met Randy briefly in 2009 thru a coworker, he was still writing songs performing with all his hopes and dreams. My Mom had passed away and he came to the wake, he just could not believe she had lived 96 years. I thought he was a nice person, I guess he just lost his way. Old memories never die Lou Ann

“ My heart goes out to Randy's family. Randy was a friend of mine for many years. I am a guitar picker. I remember watching Randy and Mark Smith and Randy Head working out the words for a song one evening. It was "No 2 Pencil (in a dot com world)". Randy asked me to play with him at the Macon Coliseum, Macon's largest venue. I was honored to perform with Randy. I still have the set list we wrote before that show. I treasure it. We played with Larry G. Hudson a few times also. Those guys sounded so good singing together. I am sure all the pickers that played with Randy will be at a loss, as I am now. Randy visited me a year or so ago. I was so glad he came to visit. I hugged his neck before he left. I am glad I did. It was the last time in this old world our paths were to cross. I miss my friend. I will pray for you folks to get through this tragic time. Sincerely, Greg Mead, Macon Georgia

“ Randy and were friends since the early 70s. I spent many nights listening to him play. Loved the times we spent in Key West together. He introduced me to Jimmy Buffet music before most people knew who Jimmy Buffet was. I always loved "All American Redneck" and "God Don't Live in Nashville", they were real crowd pleasers. I'm sad to see him go. Wes Day

“ I went to see T Graham Brown in Atlanta many years ago, when we arrived we saw Randy was the opening act. We were surprised when he walked out with just a guitar. He was doing standup comedy and he was great. Years later I opened up the old Swampland restaurant as Cheyenne's All You Can Eat Café a Family Dinner Theatre. Randy came and killed the crowd both nights. I had so much fun singing and cracking jokes. A memory I will cherish forever. He was a loving soul.

“ Randy, May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.
