Richard was a proud Vietnam veteran, and we owe him a great debt of gratitude for his service to our country.

He loved farming and gardening, and truly loved his family farm on Duck Branch Road. He was always willing to help his neighbors. A great father, he was loving and kind. He spent a lot of time when his children were young, helping them with their 4H projects such as Rodeos, Cattle showings, etc. These are treasured memories that his children will always carry with them. He was grandpa to so many children. He enjoyed playing checkers with his grandchildren. He was never too proud or too busy to let his grandchildren fix his hair, even if it meant ribbons and hairbows. He was always willing to play with them no matter the activity they chose. He loved them enough to allow them to play and be children.

Survivors include his children, Chris (Randa) Trussell, Richie (Valorie) Trussell, brother, James Soloman, sisters, Sandra Wilkinson, Eileen Hill, grandchildren, Callaway (Celana) Luke, Cody, Logan, Emma, Rebecca, two great grandchildren Waylon and Weston.
