

Sarah Taylor Brewer

March 9, 1943 - June 4, 2024

Sarah Taylor Brewer of Lynchburg, Tennessee, passed from this life on Tuesday—June 4, 2024, at Lynchburg Nursing Center in Lynchburg, Tennessee at the age of 81 years. Born in Chattanooga, Tennessee on March 9, 1943, she was the second daughter of the late James Freeman and Sarah Finney Taylor. Along with her older sister and two younger brothers, she spent her childhood and most of her adult life in Birmingham, Alabama.

Sarah graduated from Ramsay High School in Birmingham in 1960. She was very bright and spent her entire life as an avid reader and prolific writer. Sarah earned a bachelor's degree in creative writing from the University of Alabama. Under the name Sarah-Anna, she authored two books that touched many hearts.

Sarah was the mother of three children. Her daughter Paige and her son Jason both died as infants, a loss that was forever with her. Nevertheless, Sarah loved and laughed easily. As a mother, she was fiercely supportive and loyal. She was enormously generous and would give away her last dime if someone needed it. She adored children and animals, feeding the geese at a pond near her home daily and babysitting regularly for families that lived near her.

Sarah is survived by many who she loved very much, including her daughter,

Janice Brewer Burkin (Nathaniel Burkins, Sr.); two brothers--James Taylor (Judy Taylor) and William Taylor (Shirley Taylor) of Huntsville, Alabama; and four grandchildren, Christopher Douglas Miller-Cole (Sydney Miller-Cole) of Richmond, Virginia; Duncan Brewer Miller (Madison Miller) of Columbia, Maryland; Nathaniel Craig Burkins, Jr., and Victor Mitchell Burkins of Athens, Georgia; and two nieces and two nephews, as well as nine grand-nieces and -nephews.

Sarah's passing leaves a void in the hearts of those who knew and loved her, but they are comforted in the knowledge that she was a person of faith and is now at peace.

The family has chosen to keep her services private.

“ I took care of Mrs. Brewer at keystone. She adored my pregnancy of my daughter ila. She even adored getting to hold her many times after I had her. I changed jobs and for several years I didn't see her until right before she passed I happened to be in her new facility. I asked if she remembered me and she didn't, but as soon as I told her my daughters name she said it was “Rosie” my daughters name is Ila rose and she said she was going to call her Rosie. The doctor I was with and the nurse asked me how old my daughter was who was almost 3 at the time bc they said she hasn't been able to remember anything. Yet she remembered my daughter's name. I am so glad I got to see her and show her ilas pictures even if she couldn't remember much. I sat in my car and cried at how beautiful it was to see her and knowing my daughter was a lasting memory.

“ I met Sarah after her family moved next door to us when we were in grammar school at Glen Iris in Birmingham. Mr. Taylor pastored our church for only a couple of years but our families remained life long friends. Sarah was gifted with the ability to create the most marvelous stories which we constantly begged her to tell. She was a dear friend and will be missed. Sincerest condolences to all her family.
