“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I can't imagine the pain you must be going through. Our boys released red balloons at the game on Saturday. I'm sure Taran saw them floating. Although I didn't know your little man, I couldn't help but cry. Our prayers are with you.

*When a Child Dies...
To die one's self is a thing that must be easy,
and light of consequence;*

But to lose a part of one's self-- well we know how deep that pang goes,

*we who have suffered that disaster,
received that wound which cannot heal....*

*It is one of the mysteries of our nature that a man,
all unprepared can receive a thunder-stroke like that and live.*

*It will take mind and memory months
and possibly years
to gather together the details and thus learn and know the whole extent of the loss.*

-Mark Twain, 1888, on the death of his daughter, Suzy Clemens

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Taran fought so hard for so long. I don't personally know you but I have said many prayers for Taran as my Grandson CJ also has Cystic Fibrosis. I know how dreadful the disease can be.

My team will be at the Great Strides walk and we will continue raise funds to cure Cystic Fibrosis.

With deepest sympathy,

“ I am so sorry about the loss of your son. I cannot begin to imagine the pain you and your family must be going through, although, I know it must have been extremely hard also watching him suffer while he was here with you. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I pray God give you the peace and comfort you need to get you through.

“ Words will never convey the pain and sorrow I feel in my heart for your loss. Although we never met, I followed Taran's progress on the website daily. I can't imagine what you must be feeling, but please know that you are not alone. Master Taran is with the real Master now and I know he is in good hands. Please accept my heartfelt condolences and my support and love. I will miss my little tiny Buddy too. Love, Mike McFerrin

“ Danny and family,
I am so terribly sorry for your family's loss. This is such a horrible thing for you to go through. Just keep your faith and remember that God would never put you through anything he doesn't think you can handle. We will continue prayers for you, Taran's mother, sister and other family members.
Again, I am so terribly sorry,

“ Kay and family,
Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.
Words can not express our deep sorrow at your loss.
As time passes you will smile again. Laughter will some day return and with it thoughts and memories that will fill a life time. Take this time to grieve. Comfort each other and know that you were there for him always .
Thinking of you.
