“ I pray that you are at peace now and that you've found the acceptance, infinite love, & abundant happiness that you so often spoke of. For it is this hope/belief that eases the pain in my heart. I am a better person for having known you & being blessed enough to have shared some of your short time here on earth. I will celebrate your life by continuing our fishing traditions & honor your memory by humbly I pray that you are at peace now and that you've found the acceptance, infinite love, & abundant happiness that you so often spoke of. It is this hope/belief that makes my pain bearable. I am a better person for having known you & being blessed enough to have shared some of your short time here on earth. I will celebrate your life by continuing to night fish (just like you taught me) in our spot. I will honor your memory by keeping the promises I made you. You are very loved & will be missed by many. Praying for your family & loved ones.
